YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION MEETING

Officers Are Elected for Ensuing Year and Reports Given.

The Young People's Union of Honolulu met last evening in the Portuguese church on Punchbowl street, where reports of the year were made and an election held of officers for the ensuing year. The meeting was fairly well attended, representatives being present from the Central Union, Kawaiahao, Methodist, Kamaikapili and Portuguese churches and from Kamehameha School and Ewa. The meeting was presided over by the retiring president, M. K. Nakulua, and the singing was led by Miss Florence Yarrow.

After singing several hymns, President Nakulua offered a prayer for the continued good work of the Union for the young people of all the churches. He was followed by Miss Kate Kelley, the vice president, who read the secretary's report for the year. She said there had been several meetings of committees during the year which had arranged for meetings to be held in various churches, as follows: Kawaiahao, June 2, 1907, Edgar Geil, speaker; Christian, September 3, 1907, which took the form of a farewell to Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Corey; Methodist, November 15, 1907, Rev. E. S. Muckley, speaker; Central Union, April 15, 1908, Rev. W. M. Kincaid, speaker.

The various pastors of the city, the presidents of the Young People's unions, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and the secretary of the Christian Endeavor Society, were all thanked by the secretary for various favors rendered to the Union.

President Nakulua read the treasurer's report which showed a balance of cash on hand of $2.70.

The nominations for officers made at a previous meeting were reported to the meeting and were duly ratified, as follows:

President, Richard Trent, Methodist church; vice president, Mr. Taggart, Christian church; secretary, Miss Duff, Central Union; treasurer, Mr. Freitas, Portuguese church.

The retiring president then made a short address, in which he thanked all the unions for their kindly assistance to him during the year, but he called their attention to a need for increased work and said that more interest should be taken by the members of one union for other unions.

Rev. G. L. Pearson of the Methodist church spoke on "Personality." He said that personality was spiritual and not material. Personality showed what the individual was. It was something grand and noble in its influence. It was either good or bad. The mightiest thing in the world was personality. If it had the effect of doing good what a power it was to help, to cheer and to brighten the lives of others. Personality might be in the frailest body or in that of the giant, yet it remained for each one to have a personality which will stand out so prominently that the material with which it is associated is put in the background. Abraham Lincoln today moulds the young of the nation by the power of the personality which he indelibly stamped upon the history of the country. When one thinks of Abraham Lincoln it is as a man, the large, hearty, pure-natured, grand, noble man. Apostle Paul also had a great personality, a personality which, despite the rigors of his apostleship, stood out as a light to all the world.

BECKY PANEE STILL ON DECK

At the hearing before the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon of the motion to dismiss the appeal in the Becky Panee spendthrift case, on condition of her executing a trust deed for $33,000 worth of property to a trustee to be selected by the court, Justice Perry asked Mr. Fitch if he thought that the Supreme Court had jurisdiction to make such an order if Mr. Magoon should object.

"Frankly," replied Mr. Fitch, "I do not think that your honors would have jurisdiction to make the order of dismissal if Mr. Magoon objects, but I hope and expect that Mr. Magoon will not object. This trust deed guards the interests of the woman and puts it beyond her power to squander $33,000 worth of property. If, as Mr. Magoon has always contended, his object is not to hold on to the spendthrift trust, but to guard Mrs. Panee from waste or from designing persons, he will consent to this order being made."

"No," said Mr. Magoon, "I cannot consent. I must admit that the proposed trust deed is drawn in Becky's

MODEL BLOCK, FORT STREET

Interest and is carefully drawn, but I want this case to be heard in its order for I want to show up an atrocious attempt made to take advantage of Mrs. Panee and rob her of her property." Mr. Fitch, interrupting: "Do you mean to intimate that I was engaged in such an attempt?" Mr. Magoon: "Not at all. You opposed it, and by your skill and efforts you baffled the conspirators and compelled them to surrender the deeds they had obtained."

Chief Justice Frear: "I do not see that we have any jurisdiction to enter into this motion except by consent, and if Mr. Magoon declines to give consent, the case must take its regular course on the calendar."

Mr. Fitch: "Very well, your honor. Mrs. Panee will execute the trust deed in the meantime, and bring it before this court at the hearing."
